

The Death of Fred Clifton

11/10/84

Age 49

Lucille Clifton

I seemed to be drawn to the center of myself leaving the edges of me in the hands of my wife and I saw with the most amazing clarity so that I had not eyes but sight,
and, rising and turning,
through my skin, there was all around not the shapes of things but oh, at last, the things themselves.

Lucille Clifton (1936 - 2010) was an American poet whose works examined family life, racism, and gender.
